

NEO SELLO

Neo Kgothatso Sello grew up in Soweto, Johannesburg. She loves her community so much that she is currently a volunteer at the South African Red Cross Society Soweto branch. Neo is leading the Global Road Safety project at the moment and also serve as their youth events coordinator. She has been a service leader at City Year South Africa. Neo's motto in life is 'It is not over until it's over'. Neo doesn't give up easily, and she fights for what she believes. Neo has had many leadership roles, and they encourage her to continue improving and growing. She has developed leadership skills in both little and big positions. For instance, she gained administrative and organizational skills from the South African Red Cross Society Soweto branch. Neo also has good communication skills. Neo's professional goal is to go back to school and further her education in early childhood development. Her long-term goal is to run her very own Early Childhood Development Centre in Soweto. Neo has a love and passion for cleaning, as a hobby she turned into a business. She also enjoys doing yoga and reading books.