

JOHAN NICOLAAS HORN

Nicolaas is a Stellenbosch University graduate in Politics, Philosophy and Economics. Nicolaas tries to live by the intention of being willing to serve, aware of each individual's inherent value, and acting accordingly. Nicolaas aspires to help inspire people to rise above their struggles and suffering. He enjoys reading, running, hiking and all things to do with people. Some achievements include receiving a full honorary award in leadership in his final year at school. He has partnered in starting and running a business. His skills include leadership, adaptability, effective communication, and empathy. Nicolaas is active in serving the youth by mentoring young leaders in Stellenbosch in how to effectively impact their communities and engage in a larger community across borders. He has a passion for social enterprise and is working on future endeavors.